

Sheehan, Jack

Las Vegas, NV | (702) 360-4919
 Jshee32110@aol.com

Background

Jack Sheehan has been a resident of Las Vegas for 33 years, has published 12 books, sold three screenplays to Hollywood, and won several regional and national awards for his books, screenplays, magazine articles, and newspaper columns. Jack has spoken to numerous groups about Las Vegas history of the last 50 years and is considered an expert on the social and business history of Las Vegas. He has authored four books on Las Vegas, including The Players, which profiled the most important gambling entrepreneurs in local history, and Skin City, which examined Las Vegas' return to its adult-oriented roots in the 21st century.

He is a highly sought-after speaker who has addressed national golf conventions and other sports conventions, and has authored two NY Times bestsellers on the world of professional golf. He has received the Lowell Thomas Award for outstanding travel writing and a Lifetime Achievement Award for his contributions to golf in the Southwest.

Topics

- The History of Las Vegas since 1945.
- Famous Personalities Who Have Shaped Las Vegas.
- Cultural Changes the City Has Experienced, Particularly in the Marketing of Las Vegas.
- The History and Importance of Golf in Las Vegas.

Books

Skin City: Uncovering the Las Vegas Sex Industry

Class of '47: Annapolis-America's Best

The Players: The Men Who Made Las Vegas Famous

Embedded Balls: Adventures On and Off the Tour with Golf's Premier Storyteller (with Peter Jacobsen)

Buried Lies: True Tales and Tall Stories from the PGA Tour (with Peter Jacobsen)

Above Las Vegas

Chicken Soup for the Golfer's Soul